Direct Action!

Because actions speak louder than words.

Self-Advocates Becoming Empowered wants all self-advocates to get involved in fighting for justice. Whether it means writing a letter, meeting with an elected official, getting "in your face" with professionals, or holding a demonstration, you have a part to play!

Direct Action! shows how you can fight for justice in a way that works best for you and your group.

Self-Advocates Becoming Empowered would like to thank all of the advisors who worked with us on this project, and the many groups who contributed archival materials and support. Thank You!

This program was funded through a grant from The National Center for Self-Determination.
